

I drive a truck and XM Traffic and Weather is very important to me when I go through these city's that are highly populated, considering that I do not know every local radio station that has the weather, and this channel is up-to-the-minute. My daughter is also a long-haul driver and she utilizes daily. We are paying for it so why should it be taken away.